PER STACKS
Per PN 1993 C372
SIR GEORGE WILLIAMS UNIVERSITY LIBRARY
AUG 19 1970
MONTREAL

Vol. 3 No. 12 July 20, 1970.

HAROLD J. POLLOCK FILMS

The Canadian Film Institute's preview library contains five new colour films on Australian wildlife, produced by Harold J. Pollock. The series consists of:

KOALA	20 min.
MARLOO THE RED KANGAROO	22 min.
BIRDS THAT NEVER FLY	22 min.
WHERE THE PELICAN BUILDS HER NEST	18 min.
MENURA	18 min.

The purchase price for any one of these films is $275.00 in Cdn. funds. For further information, please contact our Sales Department.

NATIONAL FILM BOARD

Effective as of July 2nd, the National Film Board has once again agreed to provide the C.F.I. with access to its National Film Library, in Ottawa. The films are available in French or English from the C.F.I. at the regular rental rates of $4, $5, $6 and $12.

NATIONAL LIBRARY OF MEDICINE

After a year of limited activity, confined within the borders of the United States, the National Library of Medicine in Bethesada, Maryland, has again restored foreign interlibrary loan services.

Requests should be directed to the National Library of Medicine, 8600 Rockeville Pike, Bethesada, Maryland 20014.

At present the Canadian collection is made up of some 600 film titles, and is housed within the C.F.I.

PALMARES DU FILM, 1970

A cause de la situation incertaine quant à la livraison actuelle du courrier, la date limité de réception des formulaires d'inscription pour le Palmarès du Film Canadien de cette année a été reportée au I7 juillet. Les films devront être rendus au début du mois d'août.

La semaine du Palmarès commencera lundi, 28 septembre. Un Jury International présentera les films à l'écran, dans une salle de cinéma de Toronto auquel le public sera admis gratuitement.

CINEMA D'AUJOURD'HUI

Crown Publishers, 419 Park Ave, South, New York, N.Y. 10016 is the American publisher of the film series CINEMA D'AUJOURD'HUI. At present there are four titles published in English - Federico Fellini, Jean Cocteau, Jean-Luc Godard, and Sergei Eisenstein. All have been brought up to date, and include material from American and British sources that did not appear in the original editions.

NATIONAL FILM THEATRE (OTTAWA) SUMMER PROGRAMME

On Thursday evenings July 23, 30 August 6, 13, 20 and 27, the National Film Theatre (Ottawa) will present a series of early American animated films. The programme has been arranged through the cooperation of la Cinémathèque canadienne with the assistance of M. André Martin presently the Director of Research and Planning at the C.R.T.C. in Ottawa, and himself a film director, critic and historian of animated films, and the founder of the short film festival in Tours and the animated film festival in Annecy, France.

The films will illustrate the development of animation in the U.S. and will include examples of popular cartoon characters such as Krazy Kat, Farmer Alfalfa, Mutt and Jeff, Felix the Cat, etc. Screenings will be held at 8:30 at the National Library and Archives building on Wellington Street.

NEWS COMMENTS

"CANADIAN FEATURE FILMS Part I 1913-40" has recently arrived from the printers. Back orders are presently being filled. If you wish to order copies of this excellent publication, please direct your requests to Publications Department c/o Mr. Clarkson.

"800 FILMS FOR FILM STUDY", is expected back from the printer in the early part of August. However, we recommend you place your orders early.

Roundtable Films, producers of management - sales training and employee communication films, have recently published a brochure describing their latest films. If you wish a copy, please write to our Sales Department, c/o Mrs. Lee Fisher.